ARTS, THEATER AND LECTURES

APRIL 4–MAY 23 The Speakeasy:

Age of Sco aws Want to practice your Mid-Atlantic accent? Party like Gatsby at The Speakeasy, a Prohibition-themed bar and immersive theatrical experience. Period actors coexist alongside patrons, living out storylines in this interactive play (that's also a bar, casino and cabaret show). thespeakeasysf.com

APRIL 5–7 Birds & Balls The world is full of great pairings: wine and cheese, peanut butter and jelly, competitive finch singing and Billie Jean King... Opera Parallèle, in collaboration with SFJAZZ, presents a comedic double bill of new operatic works. First, follow Flemish finch sitting with Vinkensport, then pull it together for the one-act Balls about tennis' infamous Battle of the Sexes. operaparallele.org

APRIL 6–8 Eppur si muove & y through the night, and land near dawn
Artful contemporary dance set to music by the Friction Quartet: the Nancy Karp + Dancers' April program presents two works choreographed by company director Nancy Karp. The evening promises intricate visuals, with both works inspired by the movement of songbirds. nancykarp.org
